About Boston Ballet

Boston Ballet's internationally acclaimed performances of classical, neo-classical, and contemporary ballets, combined with a dedication to world class dance education and community outreach programs, have made the institution a leader in its field, with an over 50-year history of promoting excellence and access to dance.

Led by Artistic director Mikko Nissinen, the Company is a force in the dance world locally, nationally, and internationally. Boston Ballet continues its dynamic forward momentum while honoring its historic roots, the legacy of founder E. Virginia Williams, artistic advisor George Balanchine, and the leadership of artistic directors Violette Verdy, Bruce Marks and Anna Marie Holmes.

Boston Ballet School, the official school of Boston Ballet, has a long-standing dedication to excellence and access. The School reaches more than 10,000 students each year through Boston Ballet classes, held at three studio locations in Boston, Newton, and North Shore.

Boston Ballet's nationally-acclaimed education programs include Citydance, Taking Steps, and Adaptive Dance. The Programs are offered in partnership with the Boston Public Schools and in communities throughout the city and region.

About BBVA

Boston Ballet Volunteer Association – BBVA – welcomes people of all backgrounds united in their interest and enthusiasm in supporting one of the world's leading non-profit arts organizations.

BBVA Volunteers support Boston Ballet in a variety of ways:

- Enhanced community awareness
- Increased public appreciation and education
- Supporting special projects and initiatives
- Nurturing a community where volunteers can share their love of ballet, develop new skills, and contribute to the value of Boston's arts community

The BBVA's mission is to provide volunteers with the information, training, and tools needed to ensure a rewarding and productive experience for all. BBVA strives to provide volunteers appropriate assignments and an awareness of how your individual skills can most effectively benefit Boston Ballet.

Whether you can contribute a few hours each year or a full work-week, there are opportunities for you with Boston Ballet Volunteer Association. Little or no experience is required for many assignments and current volunteers are always eager to share their knowledge and experience with you.

Join BBVA today!

Your participation will make a difference.
